A Message from our President

Tuesday, November 8th, 2016

A Conman running on bigotry, racism, homophobia, xenophobia and intolerance won the Presidency.

Tuesday, November 7th, 2017

Danica Roem, a Transgender woman beat the “chief homophobe” of Virginia to become the first Transgender House Member in the State.

Republican Ed Gillespie runs a racist ad campaign to win the Governorship of Virginia and is soundly beaten by Democrat Ralph Northam.

Democrats emphatically claim the New Jersey Governor’s Mansion.

Tucson rejects a Trump Republican and a fake independent in their bids for City Council, returning two Democrats and voting in environmentalist Democrat Paul Durham.

Maine expanded access to Medicaid through the Affordable Care Act, becoming the first State to do so through voter referendum.

Our fight is far from over, but Tuesday showed us that our Nation is fighting back against the little terrible aspirations of a historical mistake. Our nation has a history of mistakes, but we stand today unbowed in the knowledge that people you will not let those mistakes last long. We will use our passion and our drive to wipe away the dark smudge of Trump and his cronies so that tomorrow will be a brighter day.

Thank you,

Jeremey Lasher – President of Democrats of Greater Tucson
